OTHER LOCAL COMMENT

Walter Johnson may be asked by Manager Griffith today to pitch the Nationals into second place at the expense of the Detroit Tigers,

Johnson only worked five innings Friday, and will be able to come back strong today if he is asked to hurl. In case Johnson does not toe the slab, Doc Ayers will do the honors, and the way the Virginia Sawbones is going, he will prove hard pickings for Jennings' crew.

The Tigers will have either Covaleski or Dubuc. Which ever works, a real ball game is assured the fans this afternoon
